

WHERE TO REGISTER

You can register for classes from almost anywhere. All you need is a computer with access to the World Wide Web. If you don't have a computer at home or at work, there are several computer labs on campus you can use:

- The lab in building H is opened at various times
- The Cyber-Café in the Student Center has several computers
- Several academic departments have computer labs that are open at various times.